LONDON ARTISAN BEERS

Sample List

We are now stocking some artisan beers that are being made in London, only twenty miles away, I call that a local produce! Fascinating, small production and hand bottled beers full of flavour and history. All the beers are bottled live, never filtered or pasteurised.

Beavertown Brewery

Beavertown was the old cockney name given to the historic De Beauvoir area, famed across Victorian London for its rich characters and infinite revelry. Beavertown Brewery was founded by Logan Plant, son of Robert, the Led Zeppelin front man.

Smog Rocket, smoked porter 5.4%

4.50

A super little beer that pours as black as pitch with a big cappuccino head, smells of old fire wood, prunes and damsons with a comfortable old-fashioned feel. The hops give crunchy dried leaves and nettles that leave a dry bitter finish and a slim cigar taste. Cracking! Think steak, or a joy on its own.

Redchurch Brewery

Old Ford, export stout 7.5%

5.00

Rich, dark and deep black, export stout. Complex malt base providing burnt chocolate, espresso coffee, molasses and leather aromas. The complexity of the malts is perfectly balanced by the warmth of the alcohol, punchy bitterness and earthy spice provided by the Columbus hops. Think cheese or chocolate!

Hoxton Stout 6%

4.50

Deep black topped with a fine tan head, complex malt flavours from the chocolate malt and roasted barley trading a delicate line balance between bitterness and sweetness. Chinook, Columbus and cascade hops provide the perfect fruity compliment to the espresso and chocolate notes from the dark malts, and refreshing dry crisp finish.

Camden Town Brewery

Gentleman's Wit 4.3%

5.00

A Belgian brew with an English accent. Classic cloudy pale yellow beer spiked with roasted lemons and fragrant with bergamot, full bodied with a spicy finish

The kernel Brewery

London's top brewery, a must try!
